

NAGPRA, Sacred Sites & Cultural Monitoring

September 10-12, 2018
Reno, Nevada

Presented By:

Joseph Myers,
Executive Director,
National Indian Justice Center

Nicole Myers-Lim,
Executive Director,
California Indian Museum
& Cultural Center

This session examines legislative and policy tools created to meet the challenges that Native Americans face when protecting spiritual sites and other culturally relevant resources. Additionally, the training provides an introduction to monitoring road construction, energy development, and public projects to ensure that mitigation measures are implemented and cultural resources are protected. Case examples will be discussed. Participants will receive a comprehensive reference manual and a certificate of achievement upon completion of the course.

This Training Will Focus On

- The Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA)
- The National Historic Preservation Act
- The latest developments, emerging issues, and opportunities regarding NAGPRA
- How to coordinate and integrate compliance with Section 106 of NHPA and Sec. 3 of NAGPRA
- Archeology Resource Protection Act
- CA Environmental Quality Act
- American Indian Religious Freedom Act
- Roles and Responsibilities of Cultural Resource Monitors and Agencies
- Collaboration between Native Americans and Archeologists
